Media Advisory

Hialeah Cultural Fridays, Viernes Culturales en Hialeah

What: The Honorable Mayor Julio Robaina, the Hialeah City Council and the Cultural Affairs Council invite the media to attend the inaugural “Hialeah Cultural Fridays” in downtown Hialeah. International and local artists, sculptors, musicians and artisans have been invited by the City of Hialeah to display their artwork for the public to enjoy.

The event’s featured artist is Felix Garcia Estupiñan. Mr. Estupiñan is a native of Cuba, who now resides in Hialeah. His artwork is featured on the event invitation, event publicity materials and event banners.

The event’s main venues will be the Raul L. Martinez Government Center, the Hialeah Branch Courthouse and Villa Aida. Artists will also be displaying their creations on Palm Avenue, between 3rd Street & 6th Street. The main stage, featuring various musical performers, will be located at the entrance of the Raul L. Martinez Government Center.

When: June 16, 2006.
6:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m.

Where: Palm Avenue, stretching from 3rd Street to 6th Street, in Hialeah.

Extra Info: We ask the media to check in at the City of Hialeah Publicity Kiosk.

This event is sponsored by the City of Hialeah, the Hialeah Cultural Affairs Council, with the support of the Miami-Dade Cultural Affairs Council, the Mayor and the Miami-Dade County Board of County Commissioners.

Also sponsoring the event are Winn-Dixie, Citibank and Romance Ballroom.
